Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaint.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, Nov. 1, 1862.

Sir: I have used your Pills in my family for the Liver Complaint, Bilious Fever, and Fever and Ague, and they have proved an excellent remedy. Indeed, I have been using them ever since you made them, and they are the best cathartic we ever had in the house. Please send me a box by express. Yours truly, W. H. WATTLES.

Dysentery, Relux, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTFORD, CONN., Nov. 1, 1862.

DR. AYER: Your Pills have done my wife more good than all the doctors and all the medicine she ever took. Please send me a box by express, as I cannot do without them. Yours, etc., E. H. GOODWIN.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. S. Holmes, Pastor of the Methodist Church, Bellefonte, Pa.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills in my family and among those I am called to visit, and regulate the organs of digestion, and as the very best remedy I have ever used, I cheerfully recommend them to my friends. J. S. HOLMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Dec. 1, 1862.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to keep the fountains of the blood pure. JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, Kings Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Correspondent, Mobile, Ala., Dec. 1, 1862.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the purest cathartic we employ in our practice. They have cured my little daughter, Ella, of Scrofula, which had covered her hands and feet with blotches and sores, and was fast spreading over her body and face. Your Sarsaparilla had failed to do her any good, but your Pills have made a perfect cure. Further than this, they have cured her mother of Erysipelas, which had troubled her for years, and which your Pills, and they alone, relieved promptly and permanently. EDWARD PRITCHARD.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawks, Rector of St. Thomas' Church, New York.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Dec. 1, 1862.

HONORED SIR: I should be unjustifiable if I did not inform you that I have been brought me if I did not proper service in my limbs and brought on excruciating which ended in chronic rheumatism. I have been physicians the disease grew worse and advice of your excellent agent in Jackson tried your Pills. Their effects were surprising in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1862.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured of Neuralgic Gout—a painful disease that had subjected me for years. VINE[illegible]

For Dropsy, Plethora, or Kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are unrivalled.

For Costiveness or Constipation and Rumor Pill, they are agreeable.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Deafness, and Partial Blindness, produced by the alternative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, a valuable remedy in skilful hands, but dreadful consequences that follow its use. These contain no mercury or mineral whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues in any town, and almost every hamlet of the country, where wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints by its use have been known. Any, few are the families in the civilized portion of this continent without some personal experience, or that of their neighbors, of its effects, and fewer yet the communities where some living trophy of its triumphs over the insidious and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs does not exist. While we do not claim for it the virtues of a panacea, we do assert that it is the most powerful antidote yet known to that class of complaints which originate in pulmonary disease, and that it is the most pleasant and safest remedy that can be employed for children and delicate females. Parents should not permit themselves to be deceived by unprincipled druggists, who, for the sake of larger profits, may recommend some other preparation as "just as good" as Cherry Pectoral, but insist upon having the genuine article. Public speakers and singers will find relief from hoarseness and sore throat by the occasional use of this Pectoral. Military companies and firemen, exposed to all weathers, should have it in their possession, ready for use. Navigators and travellers in all climates should provide themselves with it, as they can rely upon it for relief when attacked by pulmonary disease. Keep it by you, and cure yourself while you can. Do not neglect them until no human skill can reach your case. Throughout the whole catalogue of pulmonary remedies, there is not one that can be relied on with the confidence that may be placed in this. It is the only antidote to the consumption that science has yet discovered. It will break up the most distressing cough by the time one bottle has been taken, and will cure the most dangerous case of throat disease in much less time than any other medicine

Rebels at the North

The dispatches published yesterday morning show the legitimate tendency and results of democratic teachings of the present day Not content with opposing the Government by their voices and their votes, its adherents and disciples in Ohio obedient to the example of their mob brethren in New York, have conspired to organize an armed force, for the purpose of liberating the rebel prisoners at Camp Chase, and by their aid, of taking possession of Columbus, the capital of the State, and then, opening the doors of the penitentiary they proposed to set the guerrilla Morgan free and become his soldiers in a bloody raid through the Buckeye State—fit follower of the murderous chief Fortunately the diabolical scheme was foiled and the prosperous cities and the beautiful valleys of Ohio will not be scourged with the infernal machinations of wrathful democrats, who seek to manifest their sympathy for rebellion and their rage at recent defeat by scattering fire brands bullets and death throughout the loyal North

There is a lesson in all this which may teach us in Oregon that there is a crafty and dangerous foe among us, against whose treasonable wickedness we should be on our guard When men, professing to be democrats meet in conventions, and openly declare their hostility to the acts of the Government, and seriously pledge themselves to resist their enforcement, is not this treason? If they are in earnest, are they not ready, when opportunity offers, to join their New York and Ohio brethren in conspiracies and plots against the public peace and for the destruction of the lives, the homes and the property of loyal men? We know not how soon the opportunity may come, and it becomes us to watch carefully, remembering that 'Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty' Especially does it become the duty of the honest but misguided men, who have been in the habit of following too blindly those whom they regarded as democratic leaders, to pause while they inquire where their course is tending Do they seriously intend to resist the action of the Government, in this hour of peril, even though they may not approve all its proceedings? Are not insurrection and mutiny and rebellion worse—a thousand fold worse—than all the most objectionable acts of which these democrats complain? We trust they will be wise and patriotic in time, and no longer follow fools or knaves to lawless shame and ruin

IDAHO ITEMS —The Golden Age furnishes the following items Wallace as far as heard from (three counties) has 149 majority The miners are being driven from their claims by the inclemency of the weather Everything is freezing up above, and snow falling in abundance, with prospects of a good crop for the winter Good winter diggings have been discovered on Snake river bars, near the mouth of Assotin creek Mr John Galbraith recently arrived from Beaver Head, by way of the Spokane, reports seeing two old Salmon river miners, who had just returned from the Saskatchewan diggings They report the best prospects there they ever found anywhere and intend returning in the spring, but few men are at work up there mostly Canadians and half-breeds, who were making from $25 to $30 per day with rockers This was in the vicinity of Fort Edmondson Under the heading "a preacher wanted," is the following

It is a little singular that some one of the various religious denominations have not ere this seen fit to send a minister here A good practical, sensible preacher and by all means pious, which of course he would be if practical and sensible would be well sustained in Lewiston The Legislature will convene early in December, and will be in session sixty days, during which time a Chaplain may be furnished by the Government Custodians of the spiritual welfare of mankind, look to the wants of this community Be up and doing in season there is nothing lost in making an early beginning Barbarism and its concomitants must yield to civilization, and who more than you are capable of putting on the finishing touches?

The Boise News says the taxable property in Boise county, according to Assessor's report, is $1,088,300 It is also responsible for the following

LOUSY —Mr Thompson of Thompson & Co, miners on Cal Hill, brought into our sanctum, on Wednesday last, a lot of reddish clay taken from the bed rock in their claims, that was perfectly lousy with pure bright gold It looked about as if a pint of gold and a pound of mortar had been kneaded together and dried Mr T informed us that there appeared to be the bed of a stream running through the claims, and that dirt of this quality is found wherever this dry bed is struck they have made as high as $291 to the rocker in a day They are working a small sluice-head, but have not cleaned up When they do so, we expect to hear of their taking out a hat full These claims are on the south side of Moore's creek, and are owned and worked by five men, each claiming 100 feet in width

"NEGRO HYMN"—This is the title of a blasphemous article which heads the winding sheet of the Copperheads up in Bannock City and which was known for five successive issues as the Idaho Democrat The editor, seeing that the Lord is on the side of the Union could not close his brief but brilliant career without doing his master one more good turn by blaspheming the Great Ruler of current events

Look Out To-night!

We find in the Union the following letter from an old gentleman in reference to the wonderful meteoric phenomenon, which has twice occurred with an interval of thirty years To night is the anniversary of its appearance after thirty years more If the atmosphere is clear, it may come again and from our vivid remembrance of the "falling stars" in 1833, we can assure our readers that there cannot be a more sublime and beautiful spectacle than was then presented to the vision of admiring and awe struck millions

What has been may possibly be again The evening and morning of November 12th and 13th, 1863, will be the anniversary of a phenomenon of nature, of stars falling Sixty years ago I was too small to recollect anything that happened but from my earliest recollection I heard it spoken of as the night of the day of judgment It appears that about nine o'clock in the evening that light spontaneously burst forth from all directions It was light enough to see to read in a spelling book There was not a star to be seen The cattle got up and went to feeding chickens came off their roosts, and it had the appearance of the sun rising whatever way one would look The brilliancy of light lasted about thirty minutes and then died away until one or two o'clock in the morning During the brilliant part of the night there were red streaks seen darting in almost every direction through the elements The people were excited several years within my recollection I was a witness of the phenomenon of November 12th and 13th, 1833 I was pilot of a steamboat at the time I came on watch at one o'clock on the morning of the 13th, as I went into the pilot house my partner remarked to me that the stars were all falling At that time it was unusually light so much so that I could see objects on shore that I could not have seen with out it was a moonlight night The shooting and hurling of the stars increased until about four o'clock when it was sublimely grand or awful or both or as some said it was awful freighted from that time until daylight It appeared more like raining fire than stars falling The passengers were notified of the phenomenon they got up and came on deck No one was alarmed There was little said by any one, of consequence Occasionally some person would call the attention of some other person to where the stars would rain the thickest When daylight came they could be seen in the woods when it was so light above the trees that they could not be seen The best description that I have ever seen of the stars falling is a rain shower about sunrise or sunset when the sun shines and it rains, only the rain looks blue and the stars red Our boat landed at Portsmouth, on the Ohio river about sunrise

The people were somewhat excited The feeling was wonder and surprise We did not stay long enough there to get a full expression of opinion We landed at Cincinnati late in the evening, and there every one was free to philosophize and astronomize and theorize as best suited his pleasure Some were badly frightened and said the Scriptures were fulfilled and the end of time was at hand—the last sign and wonder had appeared and it only wanted old Gabriel to give one blast of his bugle and then time would stop short off The next morning some person came out with a communication in the Cincinnati Gazette informing the people that there was no occasion for alarm that pretty much the same phenomenon had appeared on the same night thirty years ago which was on the night and morning of November 12th and 13th, 1803 that the people were very much alarmed but that nothing had happened more than common This relieved the public mind very much and every one went about his regular business Now if the phenomenon returns in thirty years it will appear during the night of November 12th and 13th, 1863, and if it does come then those who keep their eyes open may see it and in advance I do assure them that nothing serious will take place, more than has before

HOW MAXIMILIAN WILL TAKE IT —A foreign correspondent of the New York Times writes

This week the Mexican Committee visit the Grand Duke Maximilian to offer him the throne of Mexico The programme is this the Grand Duke will publicly accept the proffered place, but will privately add certain conditions, which at present seem to most people difficult of realization Then there will be a certain lapse of time ostensibly devoted to the organization of the country but in fact devoted to an observation of events in the United States at the end of which the Grand Duke will declare the necessary conditions fulfilled or not according as affairs stand in the United States The French Government, people, the Secessionists and the French Mexicans affect to sneer at the idea that the Mexican policy of the French Government is in any way influenced by events in the United States, but there is good reason for saying that there is nothing else which does influence that policy but the progress of the war in the United States—absolutely nothing, and that when the rebellion is finally put down, France will desire and ask to treat with the United States on the subject of Mexico in the most amicable terms, and with the most amicable disposition to come to terms

REMOVED —Indian Agent Hutchins who has been reported removed and not removed is now again said to be removed, this time from the best authority one of Hutchins's own employees who was present when the order removing him (Hutchins) was received When Mr Hale informed the Mountaineer that Hutchins was not removed, he was undoubtedly laboring under the belief that the gentleman who was appointed to take the place of Hutchins was appointed as an assistant on some of the reservations above Hutchins has gone to Washington across the plains, to place himself in a different light before the Indian Department, as he is said to have been removed through the report of an officer that he (Hutchins) was intoxicated at the time he lost certain Department mules The gentleman who was appointed to supercede him after going up and taking a look at the Reservation over which he was to lord it has retired in disgust, the place not suiting him —Dalles Journal

POLK COUNTY ASSESSMENT —The amount of taxable property in Polk county after deducting individual indebtedness is $1 353 476 Number of polls between the ages of twenty one and fifty years 710 Number liable to do military duty, 606 Amount levied on the dollar, for State purposes three mills For school purposes two mills For county purposes three mills Total eight mills The first two items in the assessment are fixed by law —Statesman

Oregon City Woolen Factory

OREGON CITY, NOV 7, 1863

At an adjourned meeting of the citizens of Oregon City and vicinity, to further consider the project of a Woolen Factory, a Committee, consisting of W C Dement A M Harding, J H Moore Dr Barclay Wm Barlow, J R Ralston W I Matlock, H S Buck, Hiram Straight, R Caufield, L E Pratt, Step Hoelat W C Johnson, A L Lovejoy and A Warner, appointed to confer with Mr Daniel Harvey, reported as follows

To the Citizens of Oregon City

GENTLEMEN—The Committee heretofore appointed by you to confer with Daniel Harvey, Esq met at call of their Chairman and agreed to submit to Mr Harvey the following questions

1st State what you will take for your entire interest in the Oregon City Claim, with the terms of payment?

2d State what you will take for the four lots and fraction heretofore proposed as a site for a Woolen Factory, with terms of payment?

3d State what you will take for the two front lots of the above mentioned four with terms of payment?

4th State upon what terms you will lease the four lots, with provision for renewing the lease, or a purchase by either side under an appraisement after the expiration of the lease?

5th Upon what terms will you grant a right of way over your land to bring water into Oregon City for manufacturing purposes, not diminishing nor interfering with your water?

These questions were answered by Mr Harvey, saying, in substance, that he expected the entire property was sold out into a "very wealthy party in Minnesota" who had offered him as he said at the previous meeting, $100 000 for it On Friday evening, by agreement, the Committee called on Mr Harvey, when he offered to sell out for $100 000 Your Committee deeming the price exorbitant were compelled to decline Other plans were proposed but nothing could be agreed upon until a proposition was made that Mr Harvey unite with the Abernethy Island Company in bringing the water by means of a canal across Mr Harvey's land down to the street of Oregon City the expenses to be equally borne by the parties to the contract and the water power thus gained to be equally divided and at the equal disposal of the contracting parties After the suggestion by Mr Harvey of a condition or limitation, that the other parties to the contract should not employ, nor allow to be employed, any portion of the water power to drive a grist mill, (except his own) the agreement was made upon terms then and there fully settled

W C DEMENT,
Ch'n of Committee

This report was received and adopted by the meeting After a statement by members of the Committee that they had called on Mr Harvey Saturday morning, and that he then utterly refused to consummate the agreement made verbally with the Committee, and with members representing the Abernethy Island water power on the previous evening it was moved by Judge Huelat that the Committee be allowed to make a supplemental report This being objected to and overruled by the Chairman, the following resolutions were read and adopted by the meeting

Resolved That we consider the prices asked by Mr Harvey for his property in this place, exorbitant

Resolved That we do not believe that Mr Harvey ever received an offer of $100 000 for his claim by any responsible person in Minnesota or elsewhere

Resolved, That we consider the ownership of the Oregon City Claim by Daniel Harvey, as a curse to it, and a blight to all its best interests

And we would recommend that a Joint Stock Company be organized under the laws of this State, to bring water from some point above Harvey's Claim by means of a canal through his ground, in order that an immense water power now lying idle, and worthless, may thus be made available and valuable"

The resolutions and recommendation were adopted without a dissenting vote

The following gentlemen were therefore appointed a Standing Committee A Warner J R Ralston Hiram Straight, J H Moore W C Dement, Thos Charman Septimus Huelat

Ordered, that a copy of the proceedings be forwarded to the MORNING OREGONIAN

Whereupon the meeting adjourned to Saturday evening November 14th

THE BENEFIT OF MRS HAYNE —The Theatre was crowded last night to its utmost capacity, and the immense and intelligent audience were highly delighted Mrs Hayne's acting throughout was brilliant and perfect, as it always is, and repeatedly brought down the house with cordial applause Between the plays, in both of which she performed, she delivered most feelingly the following address

The Farewell Address, written for the occasion by Capt T J Eckerson, of Vancouver

Kind Actress comes—but now to act a part,
Shall speak the feelings of a grateful heart,
Will kindly smiles and your too warm applause
Have nobly given you in no poor a cause
The acts not now,—but feelings, oh how strong
Words to find utterance from her feeble tongue!
The unremitting toil—the anguish deep
That midnight study oft, while others sleep
Will all fatigued, the overburdened brain
Finds respite short, and wakes to toil again,—
Wakes to the cares that claim from her their due
The dread which visits oft the fainting heart,
That all her efforts fail to fill the part—
That while the stern ordeal wore of the mind
Could paint with truth each passion's varying hue
The faults might glare,—her pictures prove untrue
Those wring the heart and none save artists know
Those bitter, bitter depths of mental woe
Ah, oh! what sweet results have met her here
Her hands all anxiety and fear!
All care to night is scattered to the wind,
Her smiles to greet your kind applause to find
Thanks, for the welcome thus extended here
From eyes that sparkle with true friendly cheer
From where the bright Willamette wanders free
To seek its goal far in the Northern sea
And like some fair and blushing mountain bride,
Clad with the nuptial kiss old Ocean's tide
Where the hardy miner rests awhile
Returning from the scenes of honest toil,
To wait the noble vessel soon to bear
His earth dog treasure for loved ones to share
There, as I mark your city's busy scene,
With joy I hail Pacific's second queen

Long may Willamette's valley smile in peace,
Labors lessening as her fruits increase
Save the dread sounds of war here never come
To tear the husband from his much loved home
To wound the maiden's heart as to the strife
The lover goes, to offer up his life
Nay more may eye of those assembled here,
Be doomed to shed the unavailing tear
Dear ones, lost beneath the surging wave
Of War that dots our land with many a grave!

And now, farewell, the dearest friends must part
Though the breast may throb, the tear drop start,
And when far far from you my lot is cast,
Think not that aught can ever blot the past,
Or faithless to the hearts that met me here
Had strewed my path with flowers of sweetest cheer
Memory will turn when clouds obscure my way,
And in thoughts of years brighter day
You would I linger here—but voices come
On every breeze, to whisper of my home
To some where fond ones wait with tearful eye
And watch each sail that looms up on the sky
Though the tear drop start before I now
Accept, regretful speak the sad FAREWELL!

Will cease to the cares that claim from her their due,
Will cease to Mother, and as Actress too:—
Each effort which visits of the fainting heart,
Each of her efforts fail to fill the part,—

A Distressing Headache Cured.

CINCINNATI, August 18, 1862.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & Co.—I have for many years been troubled with severe attacks of headache, which often reduced me to my bed. My sufferings have been very great, and no one can have any idea of their severity except those who have suffered with the same disease. I took your BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, bathed my head with it, and rubbed it in well. I also took, at the same time, one half of a teaspoonful of saleratus dissolved in one-fourth of a tumbler of water. Soon after, I took a second dose of PANACEA, and it was just the thing for all the world, for it knocked the pain crazy, and I have not had the headache since, for whenever I feel it coming on I take the Panacea, which always checks it at once. GEORGIA COLONELS.—In the Mexican war, Georgia, thought she'd raise a regiment, and did—but every man in it was a colonel. They tossed up coppers all round to decide who should have command, and started to reinforce Scott. Previous to marching, they consulted Horace, and found that the soldier is directed to march with his "left foot foremost." So what did my precious regiment of colonels do, but go scuffling all the way from Georgia to Mexico, shoving the left foot forward and dragging the right one after it!

For a band, they had about sixty of the best fiddlers that the plantations of the State afforded.

Scott was drilling his men by brigades, when he saw a tremendous cloud of dust in the distance, which seemed to herald the coming of an army terrible with banners. Ordering his batteries into position and his brigades into line, he galloped off with his staff to see what the matter was.

"What the devil are you, where do you come from, and where are you going to?" he shouted, as soon as within hailing distance.

"Georgia regiment of Georgia colonels, General," the commander made answer—while the fiddlers struck up a tune that scared the war-horses dancing—"and we are going to reinforce Scott!"

"But what are you marching in that fashion and kicking up such a devil of a dust for?" shouted Scott, in thundering and wondering tones.

"Hardee's tactics, General," returned the commander gaily, flourishing the open pages of the book in the air, "Hardee's tactics, left foot foremost, General!"

"And I'll be blessed, gentlemen," says the old General in telling the story, "if that whole regiment of Georgia colonels hadn't marched all the way from Georgia to Vera Cruz with their left feet foremost, kicking up the raggedest dust you ever did see.—Golden Era.

NOT ACCOUNTABLE.—The Burlington Times tells the following story:

Dr Cox, of the Methodist denomination, in Portland, is a very apt manager. It sometimes happens that his meetings draw together a few who do not go there to pray or to be prayed for. A few evenings ago some young fellows, forgetting their good manners, were rather noisy, and not so attentive to the service as they ought to be. Dr Cox thus addressed them:

"Young gentlemen," said he. Then stopping a few moments he continued, "I don't know as I ought to call you gentlemen, for your conduct here this evening does not merit that title. And yet I may be doing you injustice, as another clergyman did on another occasion. Having reprimanded a young man for disturbing his meeting, he met the father of the young man the next morning, who told the pastor that he did wrong in reprimanding his son.

"Why so?" said the pastor, "surely your son was noisy and disturbed the meeting."

"Very likely," replied the father, "but he was not accountable for such conduct."

"How is that?" demanded the parson.

"My son has fits," replied the father.

"And now," says Dr. Cox, "I don't know young gentlemen, but you may be troubled with fits. If so, I will not reprimand you, but ask you to leave.

The young men quietly took their hats and departed.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills

SUGAR COATED AND MARKED

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE DISEASE

Invalids, Footsore, Mothers, Philanthropists, and Judges of their Virtues

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach,

DR. J. C. AYER, Sir: I have been a sufferer from the worst headache ever heard of. Your Cathartic Pills have been recommended to me by a friend, and I must say they are the best cathartic that ever came under my observation. They have relieved me of a dreadful sick headache in quick time, and I am satisfied from the use of them that they will cure others as they have me. Yours with great respect, E. D. W. T.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaint,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, Dec. 1, 1862.

SIR: I have used your Cathartic Pills in my family for some time, and find them the best cathartic we have ever used. They are the best cathartic we have ever used. They are quick and sure in their operation, and are a safe and reliable remedy for derangements of the digestive organs. I seldom find a case of indigestion or biliousness that does not readily yield to them. Very respectfully yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Department.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARRISON CO., Texas, Dec. 15, 1862.

DR. AYER: Your Pills have done my wife and myself more good than all the other medicines we have ever taken. We have used them for dysentery, relax, and worms, with perfect success. Words would fail me to express the good your Pills have done us. We have used them for worms (dead) from our children, and for one two children had it bad, and in my family and neighborhood while others around us have failed to cure, your Pills have never failed. Your Pills are worth their weight in gold, and I would not be without them. Such testimony as this, from me, you may rely upon as entirely honest, will be published by GEO. J. GEER.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. H. ——

DR. AYER: I have been afflicted for many years with Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood, which caused me much suffering. I was induced to try your Sarsaparilla, and was entirely cured by the use of a few bottles. I have since had occasion to use your Cathartic Pills in my family and find them an excellent remedy for Costiveness, Indigestion, and Biliousness. To regulate the bowels and purify the blood, they are the very best medicine with which we are acquainted, and we confidently recommend them to our friends and neighbors. Yours truly, REV. J. H. ——

DEAR SIR: I have used your Cathartic Pills in my family and find them an excellent remedy for Costiveness, Indigestion, and Biliousness, and for purifying the blood. Yours, GEO. C. WRIGHT.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Judge.

DR. AYER: Your Sarsaparilla has done wonders for me. I have been afflicted for years with Erysipelas, Scrofula, and Salt Rheum, and have tried your medicine. They have entirely cured me, and my children have been greatly benefited by the use of your Sarsaparilla. Her mother had been troubled for years with pimples on her face, and she also tried your Sarsaparilla with the best effect. Yours, ——

Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

From the Rev. ——

DEAR SIR: I have been a sufferer from Rheumatism and Neuralgia, and have tried many remedies, but have found no relief until I used your Sarsaparilla. I have used it in my family and among my parishioners, and have found it to be the best blood purifier we have ever known. It has restored to health many who were apparently on the verge of the grave. Yours, ——

HOOPER'S SPA, Dec. 1, 1862.

DR. AYER: Your Sarsaparilla has cured me of Rheumatism, which settled in my limbs and caused me great suffering. I was confined to my bed, and could not move without assistance. Your Sarsaparilla relieved me from the first dose, and in a few weeks made me entirely well. Yours, ——

SENATE CHAMBER, Dec. 1, 1862.

DR. AYER: I have been afflicted with Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease—for many years, and have tried your Sarsaparilla, which has entirely cured me. Yours, ——

For Dropsy, Plethora, or Fullness of the Blood, Pimples, or Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, or Scurfiness of the Skin, and all diseases that arise from Impure Blood, use Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

The Stamp on each bottle of the genuine preparation has the United States Revenue Stamp of three cents cancelled with the signature of the proprietor. Without this stamp the medicine is spurious. Beware of imitations. DRUGGISTS and others will observe that there is no medicine on the market with the United States Revenue Stamp on the package, but Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The increased reputation of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.'s Sarsaparilla, Cherry Pectoral, Cathartic Pills, and Ague Cure, has induced some dealers to offer a variety of cheap medicines in imitation of these, which they say will answer the same purpose as Ayer's. Do not be deceived by them. Insist upon having Ayer's, and if your dealer tells you he has no other, but that he can get what you call for, you may be sure that he is deceiving you for the sake of the larger profit he makes on the spurious article. Do not be imposed upon by any such representations, but call for Ayer's, and if you cannot get it, send to us, and we will supply you with the genuine article.
